

Happy Literacy Day!

Make today "Financial Literacy Day" by checking out these books and resources about personal finance for all ages

Books for Children

- Money Madness by David Adler
- One Cent, Two Cents, Old Cent, New Cent by Bonnie Worth
- A Chair for My Mother by Vera Williams
- If You Made a Million by David Schwartz
- A Smart Girl's Guide to Money by Nancy Holyoke & Sarah Hunt

Books for Teens

- The Early Investor by Michael Zisa
- I Want More Pizza by Steve Burkholder
- Clever Girl Finance by Bola Sokunbi
- Why Didn't They Teach Me This in School? by Cary Siegal
- Money Hungry by Sharon Flake

Books for Adults

- Broke Millennial by Erin Lowry
- The One Page Financial Plan by Carl Richards
- Everyday Millionaires by Chris Hogan
- How to Manage Your Money When You Don't Have Any by Erik Wecks
- Age Proof by Jean Chatzky & Michael Roizen

MyFinancialLifeMA

MyFinancialLifeMA features resources and information on a variety of financial topics like banking basics, saving for higher education, retirement, credit & debt, and more. Visit www.myfinanciallifema.org to learn more.

Money Talk Tuesday

The Office of Economic Empowerment hosts Money Talk Tuesday webinars each month. These free workshops feature a new topic hosted by experts in identity protection, financial wellness, retirement planning, and more! Visit bit.ly/OEEevents to register for future events. Check out the previous recordings by visiting OEE's YouTube channel at bit.ly/OEEYouTube

For more information and resources on financial literacy, please visit the Massachusetts Libraries website at <https://libraries.state.ma.us>

OFFICE OF
ECONOMIC EMPOWERMENT

Office of the Treasurer and Receiver General of Massachusetts

Massachusetts Libraries

BOARD OF LIBRARY COMMISSIONERS